

Plan your Law and Society Minor Program

A current list of courses that count toward the Law and Society Minor can be found here.

Lower-level credits

Term/Session	Course Code and Title	Credits
	LASO 204 Introduction to Law and Society	3
A minimum of 9 additional lower-level credits from approved courses listed in the Calendar (ANTH 100, HIST 104, POLI 100, POLI 101, PHIL 230, and SOCI 250), specific lower-level courses that serve as prerequisites for upper-level courses such as GRSJ 101, GRSJ 102, GRSJ 225, SOCI 100, SOCI 101, SOCI 102, or other courses approved by the Law and Society Advisor.
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
	Total lower-level credits (at least 12)	_____

Upper-level credits

All LASO courses count toward the minor. A minimum of 18 upper-level credits from courses listed here with no more than 12 credits in the same discipline. A maximum of 6 credits may be double counted in both a major program and the Law and Society minor. For topical courses that change year to year and may not always count toward the minor, approval from the Law and Society Advisor is required.
Term/Session	Course code and Title	Credits
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
	Total upper-level credits (at least 18)	_____